My dear Lt

Your letter of the 3rd instant to hand. I am sending you the proofs of the procedure section of the standing orders to day.

The Manager of the Printing office complains of having no type and is not able to get on with the work as quickly as he would wish. The clean proof of the whole of part one will be ready to send you by tomorrows post.

I asked Machinan to let me know the no of horses he intended submitting for your inspection, but he did not reply. I am glad however he has told you. You will probably be able to finish with this inspection in a couple of days. The whole lot should not be "vetted" only those you may have any doubts about. Mr. Pullanat is taking Davidson down with him to help in examining the horses. I will ask Machinan to see the horses passed by you sent to Bangalore. Mr. Dale has the final proposals for the Transp

Line ready & will let you have it as soon as you return. The new Transport Cork has not arrived yet The Dream leaves this on Thursday next and will be away for about 3 weeks So you will have plenty of time to get your Transport Scheme ready for his orders. We begin our Races on the 15th August next and finish about the 27th. I mentioned this as Captain Lathuere said that you wished to know.

Yours Sincerely
